

CORYZA DISEASE IN CHICKENS

Symptoms to Watch For

EARLY SYMPTOMS (1-3 Days After Infection)

Sneezing

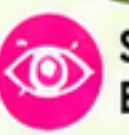

Nasal
Discharge

Watery
Eyes

Swollen
Face

Swelling Around
Eyes & Wattles

Mild
Coughing

Thick Mucus
Discharge

Reduced
Appetite

Loss of Energy

MODERATE SYMPTOMS

Swelling Around
Eyes & Wattles

Thick, Foul-
Smelling Mucus

Difficulty
Breathing

Head
Shaking

Loss of Energy

Birds Huddling
Together

SEVERE SYMPTOMS

Severe Facial Swelling

Closed or Swollen Eyes

Significant
Weight Loss

Sharp Drop in Egg Production

Poor Egg
Quality

Reduced
Feed Intake

Remember

Early detection and prompt treatment can help reduce the spread of Coryza and prevent long-term effects in your flock.

What is Coryza?

Coryza is a contagious bacterial respiratory disease that affects chickens of all ages, causing sneezing, swelling, and respiratory problems.

Keep Your Flock Healthy

- ✓ Maintain clean housing
- ✓ Provide fresh clean water
- ✓ Reduce stress
- ✓ Practice good biosecurity

shegrows.koasinag.com